

GRAPPA, CHOCOLATE AND FROZEN GRAPES COMBO

Fiery chilled Grappa, dark chocolate and delicious frozen grapes make a great combo....

Put your bottle of Distillerie Deinlein Grape Spirit and the grapes in the freezer.

Pile chunks of dark chocolate (or handmade pralines) in the middle of a plate or tray, arrange the frozen grapes beside and serve with a nice little glass of grappa to sip on while you watch the grapes and chocolate disappear.

Simple yet sophisticated - what a treat! (Jamie Oliver)

There are some moments in life when it really doesn't pay to cut corners. We think that's true when choosing an after dinner drink to round off an otherwise perfect meal. All too often, our rushed lives get in the way of the virtues of a moment of reflection, of a time to just take stock and to extend the moment. Indulging in a classic digestif such as an Eau de Vie is a timeless, sophisticated tradition that is perhaps lost on many today, but we thoroughly recommend you re-instate it!

We are biased of course, because we make Eau De Vie. As you'd expect, from Distillerie Deinlein, we demand exacting standards of all our spirits, but our Eau de Vie perhaps represent the pinnacle of the distillers' art. The sublime combination of powerful, long lasting flavours and fresh, delicate top notes is achieved with nothing but amazing fruit, care and patience. As with any work of art, Distillerie Deinlein Eau de Vie is a truly limited, limited edition - from each batch only a few bottles pass our exacting quality standards. We label them accordingly, tracing each bottle number by hand, so that you can have the utmost confidence in their quality by the time you sit back to enjoy them.

We wouldn't expect you to cut corners, and you'll not see us doing so with our super premium Eau De Vie.
